Welcome to the Baruch College Now Summer 2024 Application! Summer Program runs: July 15 - August 15, 2024

Application Deadline: Friday April 5, 2024 @ 5pm

Program Eligibility:

- Students currently in 10th and 11th grade (in the 2023-2024 school year) attending a NYC Public High School
- Academic requirements: A minimum of 80 High School Grade Point Average (HS GPA) and ELA Regents of 75+. If a student's GPA is below 80, they can be considered if a personal statement essay/recommendation letter is provided.
- Please note we give priority preference to our partner high school students and returning students. Students in non-partner schools will be considered as space permits.
- Ability to commit to all classes. Attendance at all classes are mandatory.

ANT 1001 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (3 credits)

M,T,W: (9:00am - 11:30am) (In-person)

- Cultural anthropology draws on the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences to explore human variation in peoples' practices, values, identities, and institutions, and the nature of human conflict. ANT 1001 challenges students to critically examine: what is "cultural," what is "natural?" How do race, class, gender, sexuality, science and technology, politics and the economy, and globalization shape the contemporary world? Regardless of the focus—arts and sciences, business, or policymaking—anthropology equips Baruch students to engage a multi-cultural and interconnected world.

COM 1010- Speech Communication (3 credits)

M,W,TH: (11:00-1:30pm) (In-person)

- This course provides training and practice in the preparation and delivery of original speeches, encourages the use of clear language, develops students' awareness of intellectual and ethical aspects of communication, and promotes critical thinking and academic research.

FIN 1601 - Personal Finance (3 credits)

M,T,W: (9:00am -11:30am) (In-person)

- Discusses the problems involved in efficient handling of personal finance and consumption expenditure, including consumer protection, taxation, insurance, home financing, and methods of borrowing and investing money.

SOC 1005 - Introductory Sociology (3 credits)

M,T,W,TH: (12:00pm - 2:00pm) (In-person)

- This course is a survey of sociological perspectives-particularly social interactionism, functionalism, and conflict theory. It focuses on the role of culture in shaping behavior patterns; key social institutions, such as the family, work, and religion; and the ways that globalization and multiculturalism are altering contemporary social life. Requirement Designation: Flexible Core - Individual and Society.

HED 1911- Critical Health Issues (3 Credits)

(Online Asynchronous)

- A study of current critical health issues and the individual's role in society with major emphasis upon the areas of human sexuality, drug abuse, environmental pollution, physical fitness, and diet.
